IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.15054 of 2008
ASHOK RAY @ ASHOK KUMAR ROY & ORS
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
---

2 13-8-2008 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel for the State and learned counsel for the informant.

It appears that prayer of the petitioners for bail was earlier rejected after noticing that the petitioners have surrendered quite late when the trial of some of the accused had already progressed. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that there is no direct evidence against the petitioners and the case is based upon allegation of last seen with the deceased.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case the prayer of the petitioners for bail is again rejected for the present. It has been submitted on behalf of the informant that the trial has commenced and charges have already been framed. In that view of the matter it is expected that the trial shall conclude within a period of six months. If the trial cannot conclude within the aforesaid period of six months, for no fault of the petitioners, then he may renew his prayer for bail.

WEB COPY
NOT OFFICIAL

(Shiva Kirti Singh,J)

Naresh